

Alexandria Gazette.

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 28.

LOCAL NEWS.

Those who leave the city during the summer can have the Gazette mailed to them for any length of time, and the address changed as often as desired. The subscription price is 50 cts. per month, or at that rate for a greater or less time.

For this section fair weather, winds generally easterly, slight changes in temperature.

THE REGATTA.—The coming regatta bids fair to be the event of the season, as the various committees have been untiring in their efforts to make the occasion one worthy of "the day we celebrate," and our noble Potomac, with the numerous crews, in their handsome and various boating costumes, gaily gliding to and fro upon its broad bosom, will be a spectacle long to be remembered by those who will be fortunate enough to be present on this glorious day. The commodious wharves of the Pioneer Mills have been engaged for the occasion, and will be supplied with ample seating capacity to accommodate a large concourse of spectators; and, as the different races will begin opposite the bluffs, and end at a stake opposite the boat house of the Old Dominion Club, there will be no better stand on the entire river front, as it will in addition be shaded, early in the evening, by the towering building. To assist the boat club of our city in defraying the expenses of entertaining the visiting crews in royal style, worthy of the well-known hospitality of our good old town, an admission fee to the wharves, of twenty-five cents, will be charged; and which, should the day prove to be a fair one, will stand in no comparison with the amount of enjoyment obtained. The races will begin at 2:30 p. m., but, as a great deal of pleasure may be had in anticipation, and in witnessing the preparations for the races, as well as the preparatory trials of skill of the different oarsmen, we would advise all to be on hand earlier, and thus obtain the full measure of enjoyment, as well as a comfortable and prominent seat. After the races, a grand excursion to Marshall Hall will be given, where the prizes will be distributed, and a good time had generally. A full programme will be published in due time and ready for distribution on the day of the regatta. We had the pleasure of being shown one of the handsome club badges, especially gotten up for the occasion. A broad red, white and blue silk ribbon, with a neat gold tassels at the bottom, and otherwise ornamented, with "Old Dominion Boat Club, Alexandria, Va.," printed in gold letters on its surface, are the principal features of the badge, which, by means of a pin, securely inserted, may be fastened to the dress or coat, and as every one, so desiring, may wear this beautiful souvenir of the festive occasion, doubtless they will be in great demand. The prize medals, for which several eastern manufacturers have competed, reflect great credit upon our native skill, and as they will be on exhibition by to-morrow, in the store window of Mr. R. C. Acton, their designer, it will be unnecessary to describe them here. Two tugs have been chartered, one for the use of the referees, and the other for the press. As it is the purpose of the "Old Dominion," to eclipse all former State regattas on this occasion, and as the club will therefore necessarily be at heavy expense, a committee will wait upon the public spirited citizens, to solicit such aid, as they may be willing to lend; and as every one is more or less interested in the reputation of our city, and would wish its guests to leave with pleasant remembrances of their visit, it is expected that the citizens will respond in their usual liberal manner, and thus make the Fourth a day long to be remembered with pride and pleasure by the entire community. The crew of the University School club, of Petersburg, are expected here as early as to-morrow, by the 11:7 A. & P. train.

CLOSING EXERCISES.—The closing exercises of the Alexandria Female Institute, Misses Greene, principals, took place Friday, June 24th, at the Institute, No. 16 S. Fairfax street.

Gold medals, for highest standing throughout the year in the Senior class, 1st and 2nd divisions, were awarded to Misses Mellie Acton, Irene Lambert and Lillie Agnew; silver medal to Miss Faith Leadbeater; premium to Miss Lucy Leaf.

Intermediate class: Premiums to Misses Nellie Joyce, Carrie Wise and Julia English.

Junior class: Premiums to Misses Irene Gentry, Lena Bauer, Janet Davidson and Edith English.

Preparatory department: Premiums to Misses Luella Makely, Alberta Davidson and Louisa Dieder.

For punctual attendance: Silver medals to Misses Mary Morrison, Lillie Agnew and Mamie Agnew; premium for careful observance of the rules to Miss Isabel Slaymaker.

Distinction for excellence in French to Miss Helen Weston.

Distinction for excellence in Latin to Miss Corinne Milburn.

Certificates of distinction for excellence in examination to those who made 75 per cent. and upwards to Misses Mellie Acton, Irene Lambert, Faith Leadbeater, Bertha Rodgers, Isabel Slaymaker, Edna Alexander, Mary Moore, Lillie Agnew, Lucy Leaf, Helen Weston, Mary Reid, Lida Wattles, Mary Morrison, Nellie Joyce, Nellie Vincent, Julia English, Edith Nourse, Carrie Wise, Lena Bauer, Irene Gentry, Julia Houck, Lillian Catts, Jennie Gregory, Mollie Haver, Hallie Knox, Edith English, Corinne Milburn, Eva Steiner, Anna Leadbeater, Janet Davidson, Mamie Agnew, Eliza Kemper and Katie Fisher.

COMPLIMENT TO A TEACHER.—The following letter, sent spontaneously, by the pupils of Washington school, No. 3, to their teacher, shows their appreciation of her teaching by the diligent and obedient pupils who profited by her strict discipline:

ALEXANDRIA, Va., June 27th, 1887.
To Miss Fannie Wilson, our School Teacher:
Permit us, your pupils, thus at the closing of our studies for the present session, to present to you our kindest regards for your uniform kindness and strict attention, not only to our improvement in the lessons laid down for our studies in the school books, but those nice and gentle principles that we hope may govern us still when we grow older. Now that some of us have to sever our scholastic days from you as our teacher, we shall carry with us our best love for your future health and happiness. Signed, Alvin Powell, A. M. Gray, Eugene S. Burgess, Norman L. Williamson, Samuel Fisher, Douglas Entwistle, David E. Robey, Edward Reber, Moses Hayden, J. Beckham, E. Markell, H. Pettit, W. DeVaughn, Jas. Lawler, J. McGahery, R. Gibson, G. Coombs, E. Padgett, P. Smyth, S. Mankin.

WHEREABOUTS ASCERTAINED.—The police authorities of this city this morning received a telegram from the authorities of Warrenton, inquiring if they knew anything of a sixteen year old girl, named Alice V. Mauly. The telegram stated that the girl who was now in Staunton said she was stolen from her home in this city eight years ago by gypsies. Lieut. Smith made inquiries of the girl and ascertained that she was a daughter of David Mauly, and that she had left here eight years ago with John Robinson's circus. He telegraphed in reply that her people were very poor and had not the money to send for her, but would be very glad to have her sent back home to them. Lieut. Smith says when he told the girl's mother of the whereabouts of her daughter she was almost overcome with joy.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The closing exercises of the public schools, was continued at Peabody Hall this morning, when the scholars of Washington School (white boys) were dismissed for the session. The teachers of this school are Prof. T. H. Ficklin, principal, and Mr. W. H. Greenwell, Miss F. A. Wilson, Mrs. Virginia Baggett, Miss Annie Summers, Miss Annie Schofield, Miss Alberta Sisson, Miss Angela Nevitt and Miss Jennie Stoutenburgh, assistants.

The exercises consisted of addresses by Supt. R. L. Carne and ex-Supt. W. F. Carne and the distribution of certificates of distinction by the Superintendent and clerk of the School Board. Besides the awards made by the school, many of the scholars were presented with special prizes by their teachers. Messrs. Ficklin and Greenwell were also presented with handsome bouquets of flowers by their pupils. The following are the awards made in Washington school No. 1:

Attendance—Elmer J. Alexander, Harvey Smith, James R. Mansfield and Julian F. Bettice.

Attendance and diligence—Urban S. Lambert, R. Frank Beckham and Jefferson Aitchison.

Diligence—Wm. D. Appich, Mahlon Davis, John D. Normyle, Edgar R. Pettit, Joseph G. Rodgers, Fred P. Vogeleisang, J. Thos. Watkins, Wm. C. Wildt, Carl Bohraus, F. Howard Seiders, Frank R. Hufty, Jerry J. Ryan, George E. Warfield, Arthur H. Pettit and Chas. H. Goodrich.

University certificates were presented to Edwin K. O'Brien, Herbert C. Graves and Harry Darling, who passed with honors the University local examination in English, Mathematics and Geology.

The Superintendent's medal was awarded to Herbert C. Graves.

The closing exercises of Snowden School (colored boys) will take place at Lee building, on north Alfred street, to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

PERSONAL.—Supt. Carne will lecture next Friday at Fairfax C. H., to the Fairfax teachers, on "The Teachings of History," and later in the month at the invitation of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, at Fredericksburg, on "Practical education."

Mrs. Fisher, mother of Messrs. Fisher Brothers, is seriously ill at her home on Royal street.

Mr. Leigh Reid, son of Col. L. W. Reid, has returned to his home in this city from the Virginia Military Institute, where he has been a student during the past year. Mr. Reid graduated with second honor.

Rev. J. M. Nourse desires us to state that the published reports, that at the meeting of the Washington Presbytery on Saturday, during the discussion of the Todd case, he shook his fist at Dr. Sunderland, are incorrect.

Mr. Henry Wattles has gone on a trip through the New England States.

Mrs. Theo. Ketchum and children left here this evening for Manassas where they will spend the month of July. Later Mr. and Mrs. Ketchum go to New York on a visit.

STILL IN CUSTODY.—A dispatch from Oakland says: "The tramp who is supposed to be 'Billy Williams,' the alleged murderer of Officer Arnold, of Alexandria, is still in custody here. At a late hour yesterday afternoon the Commonwealth's attorney at Alexandria wired Officer Crim to hold the prisoner until he could send a man to identify him. A correspondent had an interview with the accused, who calls himself Walter Williams. He says that he is a native of West Virginia, and that he lived for several years at Martinsburg and went to school there some years ago. He declares he was never in Alexandria, but admits he has been in Washington and Baltimore. He further states that he had been at work on a farm in Southern Ohio before he came East and was arrested here. While the prisoner answers very minutely the general description of 'Billy Williams,' he does not even resemble the photograph sent here purporting to be a likeness of Williams. The man is not at all communicative, and the officer who has him in charge says he has never told the same story twice."

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and mild with one prisoner at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Randall Fountain, colored, arrested by officer Franks, for stealing a dress pattern from Mary J. Carter, also colored, was sent to jail for thirty days.

A resident of the First ward, charged with an assault on a young man who had taken a boat without permission, was fined $2.

One of the colored school teachers, charged with whipping one of his pupils, was discharged, the Mayor holding that a teacher had a perfect right to chastise a boy for misconduct in school.

Geo. Swansbury, arrested by officer Franks, for disorderly conduct, was locked up till to-morrow.

COUNTY REAL ESTATE.—Rosslyn is being improved rapidly. The estate consists of 170 acres, and among its owners are some of Washington's leading citizens. Mr. Randall Hagner will begin next month the erection of a beautiful villa on the site which he owns. A fine tract of land, situated on the Virginia side, opposite the Three Sisters, has recently been purchased and is being improved under the charge of Mr. A. F. Barker, of Washington. No name has been given to the property, but it has been suggested that it be called "Potomac Park." The estate is within twenty minutes' walk of Arlington Ferry. The property will shortly be put on the market in large villa lots.

COUNTY COURT.—Judge D. M. Chickester presiding.—The argument in the contested election case between Messrs. Young and Johnston for county clerk, was continued until a late hour last night.

The Judge, this morning rendered his decision in the matter, sustaining the petition of Mr. Young, and granting him the certificate of election. An appeal was noted by counsel for Mr. Johnston, and the case will be carried to the circuit court. Mr. Young was represented by Messrs. F. L. Smith, Edmund Burke and J. K. M. Norton, and Mr. Johnston by Mr. J. M. Johnston.

STILL AT LARGE.—E. A. Levy, who is charged with stabbing Winfield Scott, and who is a fugitive from Richmond, it is said, was seen by one who knew him riding in the boat between this city and Washington Saturday. Levy had made no attempt to disguise himself and freely conversed about the stabbing, expressing anxiety to know if Mr. Scott desired to have him prosecuted.

BASE BALL.—The Alexandria base ball club have gone to Hampton, where they will play a series of games with the club at the Soldiers' Home. The following compose the club: Mace, 1 b.; McCarthy, s. s.; Williamson, p.; Beach, r. f.; Swain, l. f.; Hayes, 3 b.; Davis, c.; Reeves, c. f., and Smith, 2 b.

The contract for supplying the city gas works with coal for the year has been awarded to Mr. A. H. Agnew, at $4.10 per ton.

SCHOONER CAPSIZED.—The mate of the Philadelphia steamer Norfolk, which arrived here last night, reports passing, yesterday morning, a capsized two masted schooner at Ragged Point, about five miles from the mouth of the river. The name of the schooner could not be learned, but she had one of her masts out.

AN AWARD OF $500.—The suit of Sheriff vs. the Washington Steamboat Company (limited) for $3500 damages, caused by the steamer Alexandria running into the steamer Mattano, in Washington, yesterday resulted in a verdict of $500 for the plaintiff.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Numbers of persons assemble on the wharves nightly to see the various excursion boats arrive.

Representatives of the Automatic Water Gas Company, of Washington, were in the city to day and had a consultation with several gentlemen in reference to the practicability of establishing a plant here, but nothing definite was done.

The police authorities of this city have been requested to keep a lookout for a horse that was stolen on Sunday night from Mr. T. A. Garrett, at Rapidan, Culpeper county.

The steamer Northampton is said to be the fastest boat on the river.

The last regular meeting of the present City Council will be held to-night.

The line of telephone poles along Prince street is being replaced by a line of taller and better poles on which additional wires will be strung.

Messrs. Janney & Warfield, insurance agents, to-day settled in full with Messrs. J. A. Marshall and J. L. Grigg for the losses they sustained to their buildings by the recent fire.

Mrs. Annie J. Peake, wife of Mr. Warren M. Peake, died at her home, on the corner of Patrick and King streets, early this morning after a short illness, in the 26th year of her age.

It will be seen by the County Court proceedings that Judge Chickester has decided the contested election case of Johnston vs. Young, for the county clerkship, in favor of Mr. Young, the present incumbent.

A number of persons from this city and Manassas went to Washington to-day to attend the session of the Washington Presbytery, before which the case of Rev. F. M. Todd, charged with improper conduct, was to be investigated.

The "Favorite Prescription of Dr. Pierce" cures "female weakness" and kindred affections. By druggists.

J. T. Thornton will retire from the Alexandria and Fredericksburg Railroad the 1st of July to finish his trade with his brother, Nathaniel Thornton, the well-known plasterer of this city.

and you will see that there is not the slightest necessity for any one being without neat, pretty and serviceable suits.

OUR WHITE GOODS

stock is complete in all numbers and is so varied in style, quality and price that almost every one can find something to suit them. In this department we have left a few WHITE ROBES that we are closing out at extremely low prices.

There is one thing to which we wish to call especial attention, and that is the entirely new which is made exclusively from the long leaf or needle of the pine tree of North Carolina. It is a clean, healthy, safe, durable and cheap floor covering, especially adapted to the requirements of hotels, steamboats, offices, hallways, staircases, dining rooms and all places where constant use makes durability a necessity. We will take pleasure in showing the testimonials from prominent banks, hotels, armories and others that are now using it.

We also have an extra good stock of MATTINGS, and in fact the entire stock is unusually good for the season.
